REASONS THE PARTIES REQUEST TO EXTEND THE DISCOVERY DEADLINES

The parties respectfully submit, pursuant to Local Rule 26-3, that good cause exists for the following requested extension. This Request for an extension of time is not sought for any improper purpose other purpose of delay. Good cause exists for the following reasons: Defendant timely noticed the depositions of Plaintiff's experts and treating physicians. However, due to scheduling conflicts and issues with confirming said depositions with plaintiff's doctors, the parties agreed to extend the current discovery cutoff, with counsel for the parties actively cooperating to set the relevant depositions for dates amenable to all parties. The parties therefore respectfully request the instant extension to permit these depositions be taken to finish necessary discovery for this case.

Extension or Modification of The Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order.

LR 26-3 governs modifications or extension of the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. Any stipulation or motion to extend or modify that Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order must be made no later than twenty-one (21) days before the expiration of the subject deadline and must comply fully with LR 26-3. If the stipulation is made less than twenty-one (21) days before the expiration of a deadline, the parties must show a good cause exist.

Mr. Mikhaylov,

Please find attached a draft SAO to extend discovery for this case to be submitted today to accommodate the remaining depositions for this case. Please let me know if you have received responses from any of the doctors to confirm a new date for their depositions so we can include any said dates in the stipulation. Otherwise, please let me know if you have any other revisions to the
